Rumor: Apple to again stay out of megapixel race with 8MP camera in 'iPhone 6s'

By Katie Marsal

Monday, February 09, 2015, 08:15 am PT (11:15 am ET)

Apple has historically downplayed the significance of megapixels in measuring image quality, and the company may stick to that approach once again later this year with another 8-megapixel camera in its next-generation iPhone, according to a new rumor.
